

Please do not allow "translators" to overrun low power FM stations. LPFM is very important for allowing communities to share information, news and music without being drowned out by groups with more resources. Without community-run LPFM stations the FM airwaves will become even more useless and irrelevant to the majority of citizens.